

What Matters Most to Your School?

A Worksheet for Clarifying Core Values

1) If you could guarantee success in three things, but might have to give up everything else, what would those three things be?

(As you work, many things will pop into your head - use the holding area on the right to jot them down so you don't forget them)

2) Now number them in order of priority (ie: what if you could only guarantee success in two areas).

3) Using your extended list of values (from the holding area), add values 4 and 5 (in order of priority).
